YOUR HOST

Founded in 2009 by the Federation of Sovereign Indigenous Nations (FSIN), The Saskatchewan First Nations Natural Resource Centre of Excellence is a unique Canadian institution in that it is wholly owned by the 74 First Nations in Saskatchewan with a mandate to support their participation in the responsible development of energy and natural resources within their Treaty lands and traditional territories.

The Centre is directly accountable to First Nations in Saskatchewan through its 12-member Board of Directors comprised of elected leadership representing each of the ten provincial Tribal Councils, Independent Nations in the province and the FSIN.

The SASKATCHEWAN ENERGY & NATURAL RESOURCE FORUM 2026 will celebrate First Nations culture and history while fostering strong foundations for collaboration to drive the future success of Saskatchewan's energy and resource sectors.

SHELDON WUTTUNEE
PRESIDENT/CEO

THANK YOU TO DELOITTE.

We extend our sincere thanks to Deloitte for their continued support of the Saskatchewan First Nations Energy & Natural Resource Forum. As a valued partner for the second consecutive year, their commitment plays an important role in advancing meaningful dialogue, collaboration, and opportunity within Saskatchewan's energy and natural resource sectors. We are grateful for their ongoing dedication to supporting First Nations leadership and participation in shaping a sustainable and prosperous future.

We look forward to welcoming all delegates, dignitaries, sponsors, and friends to sâskwatôn (Saskatoon), located in the Treaty 6 Territory to share our vision of sustainable resource and energy development with First Nations, moving forward in collaborative partnerships

WHY BE HERE?

BECAUSE THE FUTURE IS BEING BUILT HERE

The Saskatchewan First Nations Natural Resource Centre of Excellence (SFNNRCE), in association with Deloitte, proudly presents the Second Annual Saskatchewan First Nations Energy & Natural Resource Forum - a three-day gathering of First Nations leadership, industry, government, and community partners. This premier event highlights solutions, shares knowledge, and explores the transformative potential of First Nations leadership in North America's energy transition.

Being a part of the Forum positions your organization at the forefront of meaningful dialogue and action - aligning your brand with reconciliation in action, First Nations capacity building, economic participation, and the future of energy and natural resources in Saskatchewan and beyond.

By participating in the Forum, you are not simply supporting an event you are investing in relationships, economic reconciliation, and the shared future of energy development in Saskatchewan.

BENEFITS FOR ALL SPONSORS & EXHIBITORS

NETWORKING OPPORTUNITIES: Gain access to exclusive networking events throughout the Summit, connecting directly with First Nations Chiefs and Nations, economic development leaders, industry executives, investors, and government decision-makers. Build relationships that lead to procurement opportunities, partnerships, and long-term collaboration.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT: Align your brand with First Nations initiatives and community-driven development. Demonstrate your commitment to advancing equity, capacity building, ownership, and sustainable economic growth in partnership with Indigenous communities.

PROMOTIONAL EXPOSURE: Enhance your brand visibility through integrated marketing efforts, including social media promotion, newsletters, event materials, on-site recognition, and local media coverage. Position your organization as a trusted partner in Saskatchewan's evolving energy and natural resource landscape.

STRATEGIC ALIGNMENT WITH FORUM THEMES

Sponsors are showcased within programming that explores:

MAJOR PROJECT EQUITY & OWNERSHIP – Expanding First Nations participation and ownership in large-scale energy and resource projects.

CAPACITY BUILDING – Building capacity and creating pathways to careers in energy and natural resources.

LEADERSHIP IN VALUE CHAINS – Strengthening economic partnerships and advancing procurement and investment opportunities.

ENERGY TRANSITION & ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP – Supporting responsible resource development, clean energy innovation, and sustainable practices that honour First Nations' Inherent and Treaty Rights while advancing Canada's energy future.

SASKATCHEWAN FIRST NATIONS ENERGY &
NATURAL RESOURCE FORUM 2026

YOUTH SUMMIT SPONSORSHIP

YOUTH SUMMIT AND TRADESHOW

Hosted as part of the Saskatchewan First Nations Natural Resource Centre of Excellence Saskatchewan Energy & Natural Resource Forum, Youth Summit & Tradeshow brings together Indigenous youth from all 74 First Nations in Saskatchewan for a powerful day of learning, inspiration, and opportunity.

The Youth Summit is designed to honour culture while building future leaders. Participants explore the deep connection between Treaty rights, traditional knowledge, and the responsible development of energy and natural resources across Saskatchewan. Through keynote speakers, interactive workshops, tradeshow engagement, and career exploration opportunities, youth gain a stronger understanding of how their cultural history and inherent rights are directly connected to shaping Saskatchewan's energy and resource future.

THE DAY BRIDGES:

- Culture and innovation
- Land stewardship and economic opportunity
- Tradition and technology
- Community values and industry leadership

Youth leave with a clearer vision of how they can pursue careers in energy, resources, environment, trades, governance, and emerging technologies while upholding the values of their Nations.

WHY SPONSOR YOUTH SUMMIT?

- Helps provide this unique event at no cost to students from across Saskatchewan
- Demonstrates commitment to reconciliation in action
- Supports capacity building and career development within First Nations communities
- Builds early relationships with future leaders and skilled professionals
- Aligns your brand with responsible resource development and First Nations partnership
